

Job Opening at the Institute for Social Research

Data Project Assistant

The Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) of the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan is now seeking applications for a Project Assistant to help with the the National Addiction & HIV Data Archive Program (NAHDAP) and other projects at ICPSR.

Responsibilities

This person will primarily assist with providing data-related technical assistance to users and process applications for restricted-use data made available through a secure download and a virtual data enclave. Major areas of responsibility include:

- Technical Assistance and Outreach
- Restricted Data Access Support
- Project Support

The Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the diverse people of Michigan, to maintain the excellence of the university, and to ground our research in varied disciplines, perspectives, and ways of knowing and learning.

*This position may be under filled at a lower classification depending on the qualifications of the selected candidate.

Scan the QR Code or click the link below to view the full posting https://careers.umich.edu/job_detail/182508/data_project_assistant

