

Job Posting – Statistical Programmer, Senior

Job Title: Statistical Programmer, Senior

Job Overview

Responsible for writing and deploying SAS/STATA codes to create analytic data in order to support projects, to analyze quantitative data using a variety of statistical methods, to maintain quality of statistical programs, datasets, and data reports independently and provide coaching to junior programmers.

Job Responsibilities

- Responsible for programming, data management, and analytical skills.
- Understands and is able to interpret statistical results.
- Prepares and maintains data analytical files.
- Writes and edits SAS programs to clean, manage, merge, and analyze data.
- Designs and writes programs on key and complex analysis.
- Provides quality control on major data programming and analysis.
- Provides pre-proposal requests and data transfer.
- Provides data management, programming, descriptive tables, and data displays.
- Provides statistical analysis and multivariate tables of study data.
- Reviews protocol and evaluates existing data collection, analysis, and reporting on new projects.

Requirements

- Knowledge of Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, SAS, STATA, and Microsoft Outlook.
- Master's degree (M.A./B.S.) in biostatistics. Mathematics, statistics or related field; or equivalent.
- Three years of experience in the health care industry.
- Advanced SAS certificate or at least three years experience without an advanced certificate.
- Basic coaching and presentation skills.
- Direct experience providing project management and statistical support for major research projects involving administrative/claims data a plus but not required.

Job Specific Information

- Full-time
- Forty (40) hours per week
- Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- Location - Ann Arbor, MI

How to Apply

Visit our Career Search Portal to apply at

<https://www2.appone.com/Search/Search.aspx?ServerVar=simrinc.appone.com>

Who Are We?

STATinMED Research has been providing research and consulting services to global pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and health information companies since 2010. As a small business, we started with 4 employees and have grown to nearly 50 employees as of 2017. At STATinMED Research, our mission is to help our clients in the health care industry manage cost and improve the quality of care. Our strategy is to provide decision support tools to help our clients improve clinical and business performance.

If you would like to know more about us, our services and tools, you can visit our website at <http://statinmed.com/en/>

What Can We Offer You?

- A great opportunity to be part of our rapidly growing company
- A chance to work in warm environment with passionate team members
- Excellent Benefits:
 - Paid Time Off
 - Medical insurance coverage and voluntary benefits
 - 401(k) Retirement Plan with employer contribution
 - Tuition reimbursement
 - Paid Maternity / Paternity Leave